

875—93.5(89) Steam stop valves. Each steam line from a miniature boiler shall be provided with a stop valve located as close to the boiler shell or drum as is practicable except when the boiler and steam receiver are operated as a closed system.